1. On July 17, twelve Israeli Jews were arrested for gang-raping a 19-year-old British girl vacationing in Cyprus. Mysteriously, just 10 days later, all 12 of the Jews were released and the victim was arrested for making false allegations. She now faces a year in jail and fines.

2. This reversal comes as a surprise considering the circumstances and evidence. After the alleged gang rape occurred, the 12 Jews said they were attacked by the victim's friends in their hotel lobby. The hotel manager said this didn't occur (Lie #1).

3. Upon arrest, the Jews claimed they were punched in their noses by the police, but medical examiners found no facial trauma on any of the Jews (Lie #2). However, examiners did find finger nail scratches on the back of one of the Jews - probably from the British girl.

“The police hit us, they broke our noses, and the girl is lying”, the teens’ lawyers told the Jerusalem Post. “Help us, get us out of here, you’ll see we’re right and that we’re innocent.”

But a medical examiner who examined all 12 Israeli suspects found no evidence of battery on them.

Medical examinations of two Israelis found “suspicious scratches” and bruises on their backs and chests, as if they had been in a struggle.

An early police report noted how “suspect No1” – the teenager’s holiday fling partner – had changed his story.

According to his version of events, he and another friend had consensual sex with the complainant that night, and no one else was in the room. He changed his story again later on, saying that a few friends entered the room, but only watched.

5. DNA from 7 of the 12 Jews was found on the girl. Examiners also found DNA from 3 assailants who officials believe fled to Israel before they could be arrested. So 10 Jews were determined to have had sex with the girl based on DNA evidence.

Habaris said investigators connected the seven remaining suspects to the case through witness statements as well as DNA evidence which link three of the seven to the alleged victim.

6. Of the 12 Jews that were arrested, only 3 admitted to having sex with the girl. This leaves 7 outstanding suspects based on DNA evidence. This includes the three that fled to Israel and four from the detained group who didn't confess to having sex with the girl.

JEWISH TELEGRAPHIC AGENCY

Three of the Israelis teens admitted to having consensual sex the woman, while the other nine denied having any physical contact with her, though may have been in the hotel room when the videos were taken.

7. So of the 12 Jews that were detained, four were proven to have had intercourse, but didn't admit to it.

They were likely the 3 Jews in the group who conveniently refused to talk to investigators & the one who lied about having intercourse with the girl (Lies #4, #5, #6, #7).

During Friday's court hearing, local police revealed the results of the examination of DNA samples obtained from the scene, saying one sample matched a suspect who has thus far denied having sexual intercourse with the victim.

8. Further, the top Cypriot police investigator suspected that the Jews corroborated their story before they were arrested - very suspicious behavior for people who claim they're innocent.

Jews lie? What are you, some kind of anti-Semite?

According to Cypriot media, the top police investigator in the case said that the versions of events offered by the main suspects are extremely similar to each other, and that he suspects that they coordinated their statements before their arrest.

9. According to reports, the girl's story fell apart when one of the Jews produced photo evidence proving he wasn't at the crime scene during the rape, contradicting the girl's claim that 12 Jews were there.

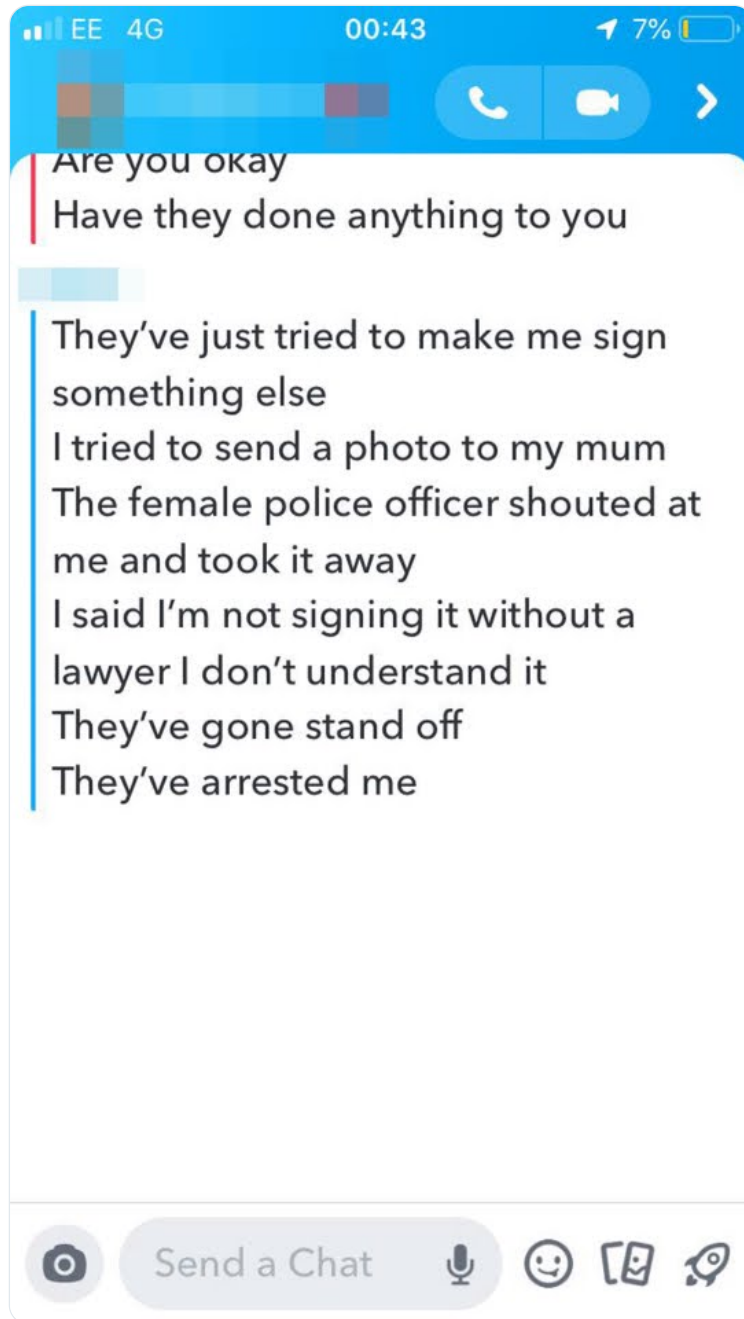

Can't take an accurate headcount while being gang-raped? Too bad, goy.

"I do remember that until about 1 a.m., the friends I did not know raped me, some wore a condom, and some didn't. They hurt my whole body... one of them held me down, and then I saw at least 12 faces ... for an hour or so, one after the other," she told police, according to the report.

"After they let me go I fainted, and then I ran out of the room, met friends and they took me half-naked to the clinic," she said.

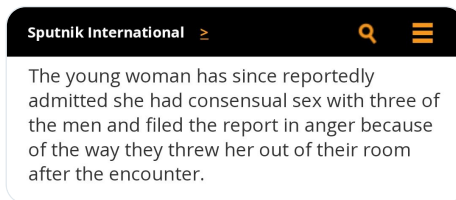

10. After the Jews were released, the Cypriot authorities detained the British girl. But before the police placed her under arrest, she sent out a text to her friend. Her last message was: "They've tried to make me sign false..." 🙄

11. The girl claims the Cypriot police forced her to sign an admission of guilt, confessing that she invented the entire episode. They also threatened to arrest her friends if she didn't sign it. She was detained for eight hours and refused counsel the entire time.

12. So now officials believe the Jews' story that the 10-on-1 orgy was consensual & she only reported the rape out of humiliation. Why was she humiliated? Some reports say it was because the Jews recorded it; others say it's because the Jews kicked her out of their room afterward

13. It is true that the girl had reason to feel humiliated. The Jews recorded the alleged gang rape and uploaded it to porn sites. In the video, the Jews call the girl a "whore" in Hebrew while telling her they're calling her "sexy."

The Jews claim she consented to this.

The footage is also believed to show the group making derogatory comments about the woman in Hebrew during the encounter.

One source said: 'The video is everywhere. In it you can hear one of the boys saying in Hebrew "You're my whore – say you are my whore".

'She doesn't understand and asks what they are saying and one of them replies in English "We are saying you're sexy". It is not very nice. It's not how men should act. A lot of people in Israel are starting to question their behaviour.'

HAARETZ

Last week, videos from the night of the incident were spread on social media. Following his release, the main suspect said that the woman consented to the acts and their filming. He asked to send a message that "one should think twice and make girls sign a contract before doing such things." Non-consensual documentation of sexual acts as well as its distribution is a criminal offense in Israel.

14. Despite the fact that the Jews said the girl consented to the filming, they still decided to delete the videos from their phones when they were arrested (Lie #8).

HAARETZ

However, the latest development in the case leave many questions unanswered. It is unclear if the accuser filed a new complaint and why some of the teens had deleted videos from the night of the incident.

Authorities are also trying to figure out what led the woman to change her version of events.

15. Incidentally, hotel guests also heard the Jews shouting "all English girls are hookers" around the hotel pool prior to the alleged gang rape. Obviously, this behavior is consistent with God's chosen. But I digress.

The Israeli group, some having a last break before three years' military service, were also at the hotel, which is well known for its pool parties. A source said: "They were living it up, ogling the girls round the poolside and shouting things to each other in Hebrew like 'All English girls are hookers!'"

16. To add insult to injury, the Jews' attorneys are planning to file civil lawsuits against the girl on behalf of each Jew in the amount of £50,000. Apparently, the Jews claimed they were "traumatized" by the experience and want to punish the girl for it.

Daily Mail

The woman could now face civil action from some of the former suspects who plan to sue for more than £50,000 each in damages.

THE TIMES OF ISRAEL

"The selfie with my girlfriend saved my life," he said. "I'm traumatized, I will never come back here."

Another teen who arrived at Ben Gurion Airport said, "I prayed every day to come here. It was hard, an Israeli kid who doesn't know English, doesn't know anything. It's fun returning to Israel."

According to Hebrew media reports, the release may be connected to the results of DNA tests of samples taken from the scene of the alleged rape, which came in earlier in the day.

"I'm not guilty, everything is alright," one of the teens told the Ynet news site. Asked about the other suspects who remain held, he said: "I don't know what's going on with them. I don't know what they did, if they did. I don't know anything."

17. So this humiliated British girl will be facing a year in jail, legal fees, fines, and potential civil lawsuits totaling £600,000 after being penetrated by a pack of Jews, while being filmed and made into a porn star against her will. And she's only 19.

18. Despite their lewd behavior - calling English women hookers and the victim a whore, a 10-on-1 orgy, filming the girl without consent, and lying - the Jews were given a "hero's welcome" back in Israel, with champagne and confetti. They even chanted: "the Brit is a whore!"

THE TIMES OF ISRAEL

In the arrivals hall, the teens, all wearing white yarmulkes, loudly celebrated their release by opening champagne bottles, chanting “Am Yisrael Chai” (the people of Israel lives) along with “the Brit is a whore.”

19. Now, what would make the Cypriot police release the Jews despite so much evidence to the contrary? Could it have been because of pressure from the Israeli Foreign Ministry due to the "roiling" of Israel's reputation?

THE TIMES OF ISRAEL

Israel's Foreign Ministry said it was aware of the case, and that Cypriot law enforcement had allowed Israeli diplomats access to the suspects.

“The Israeli consul in Nicosia, Yossi Wurmbrand, is following developments and is in contact with the detainees. Their families have been updated,” the ministry said in a statement.

The Israeli authorities are keeping mum. But Israeli news organizations have sent a flock of reporters to Cyprus, where four Israeli nationals were arrested this week, allegedly trying to tap the telephone wires of the Iranian Embassy in Nicosia, the Cypriot capital.
